

Ostomy Canada Society's Nurse Specialized in Wound, Ostomy and Continence (NSWOC) Program Award

The Ostomy Canada Society Nurse Specialized in Wound, Ostomy and Continence (NSWOC) Program Award shall be awarded to two (2) individuals annually in the amount of $1500.00 each to encourage Registered Nurses to pursue a career as an NSWOC with a focus on ostomy care.

AWARD OBJECTIVES

Promote the mission and vision of Ostomy Canada Society Inc.

Provide an opportunity to support an understanding of the value that Ostomy Canada Society Inc. brings to people living with an ostomy and their families.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE AWARD

Ostomy Canada Society will administer this award in cooperation with Nurses Specialized in Wound, Ostomy and Continence Canada (NSWOCC). Applications will be reviewed and Ostomy Canada Society will select recipients. The Chair of the Board of Ostomy Canada Society or a designate at the NSWOCC National Conference will present the award. The recipient does not need to be in attendance to win the award. If the recipient is unable to be present, the award will be mailed immediately after the NSWOCC National Conference. Award funds will be sent by e-transfer. An Education Award may only be awarded once to a recipient.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants have up to four (4) years from the date of completion of the Nurse Specialized in Wound, Ostomy and Continence (NSWOC) Program to apply.

The Applicant must:

- Be a Canadian citizen.
- Be a supporter of Ostomy Canada Society (verified by the Ostomy Canada Society National Office).
- Be a current member of NSWOCC (verified by the NSWOCC National Office).
- Be a graduate of NSWOC Program within the last four (4) years of graduation (verified by the Wound, Ostomy and Continence Institute).
- Give permission for these to be published in Ostomy Canada magazine and/or the NSWOC Advance.
